

Office Furniture Distribution Association Annual Scholarship Awards

To pay homage to individuals who have contributed significantly throughout their lifetime to the betterment of our industry, we offer OFDA scholarships to commemorate each, in tribute. These awards support logistics students in pursuit of education in the office furniture field of study. Candidates are affiliated to, and nominated by OFDA members. Following application, the student will complete a short essay for consideration of this honor. Essays are reviewed by the OFDA Board of Directors, who carefully select the best candidates for these special awards.

NOMINATE NOW to extend this valuable benefit to any employee or family member who qualifies to participate as a candidate for these scholarships.
